The letter “D” indicates that the use is permitted as a planned unit development, subject to the regulations and procedures specified in Article XIII of this Ordinance.
- B. The use of right-of-way and easements for highways, streets, alleys, walks, railroads, electric power lines, telephone lines, water mains, sanitary sewers, and storm drains, whether belonging to a governmental body or a public utility, shall be considered to be permitted, conforming uses in each district.

 1. The uses are permitted by right or as a conditional use in the district in which the lot or parcel of land is located.

Such home occupations include, but are not limited to, private consulting, non-retail based arts and crafts studios, internet-based business, telecommunication-based commuting, and Day Care Homes with fewer than three children or adults. Type A Home Occupations do not require a Certificate of Occupancy or Conditional Use Permit and are permitted with the following criteria:
 - 1. Employees - No persons other than members of the household, residing in the dwelling unit are engaged in the home occupation.

No storage of materials or equipment visible from outside the dwelling unit is permitted. Day Care Homes are exempt from the exterior visibility provisions to allow activities and equipment customary to Day Care Homes, such as outdoor play equipment.

 6. Equipment - No mechanical or electronic equipment is used that creates objectionable noise, odors, or electronic impulses, or otherwise creates a nuisance discernible beyond the property lines of the premises.
- B. Home Occupation, Type B - A home-based occupation that exceeds the limitations of a Type A Home Occupation and involves a minor amount of traffic from individuals not residing in the household. Such activity may involve scheduled visits with outside clients or customers and employ up to two individuals not residing in the household. Type B home occupations may include, but are not limited to, music lessons, professional consultations, and personal services such as clothing alterations or shoe repair.  2. Vehicles and Parking - No more than two commercial or business vehicles, trucks, or trailers used in conjunction with the home occupation may be parked on the premises or on an abutting street at any time. Up to two additional off-street parking spaces may be required by the Zoning Administrator to accommodate commercial vehicles. The Zoning Administrator may waive or reduce the off-street parking requirement based upon demand generated by the use, location of the home occupation, and on-street parking supply. No exterior storage of vehicles, other than those owned by members of the household residing on the premises, is permitted.
 3. Customer/Client Visits - No more than 10 visits per day from customers, clients, or home deliveries are permitted, with no more than three visitors present at any given time, excluding Day Care Home pick-ups and drop-offs. The Zoning Administrator may require a drop-off zone as a condition of approval for the Home Occupation Permit based on demand generated by the use, safety, and on-street parking supply.
 4. Exterior Visibility – The occupation is wholly contained within the dwelling and there is no activity, construction, or display that would indicate from the exterior of the building or dwelling unit that the building or dwelling unit is being used for any purpose other than residential, except for the signage provisions set forth in Section V-12.B.5. No outdoor storage of materials or equipment visible from a public right-of-way is permitted. Day Care Homes are exempt from the exterior visibility provisions to allow activities and equipment customary to Day Care Homes, such as outdoor play equipment.
 5. Signage – There are no signs on the premises identifying the home occupation other than a nameplate, not more than three square feet in area, only permitted as a wall-mounted sign and not internally illuminated.
 6. Nuisance - The occupation does not or will not constitute a violation of any nuisance code.
